“ What a wonderful husband, father and grandfather. He was just the perfect picture of all of those. He will be missed but what a great heritage and legacy he leaves here on earth. There is much to look forward to when we are again reunited with our loved ones. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this time of mourning. Lean on God and trust Him every day as you transition in this new walk.
Love to all of you, Sherri

“ Julia and Frances: We feel honored & blessed that we knew Blaine for a short time in his life. 58 years is a wonderfully long time to enjoy marriage. I know sweet memories of your time together will be shared over and over. Frances, hasn't it been a great joy to be involved in those sweet great grandchildren in TX. We miss visiting with you but know that your move was what God had planned for these last years. Thank you for notifying us of his passing. Al and Lou Stallard

“ Dear Frances,

Our sincere condolence to you, your children, grandchildren, and greatgrandchildren. We have many fond memories of the time we spent together. Jim will always remember the friendship and kindness you showed him during the year he lived in Gadsden.

Love,

Jim and Martha
