

Landon Jackson Layne

March 22, 2004 - March 27, 2020

In order to follow CDC guidelines limiting large gatherings at this time, a private memorial service will be held for Landon Jackson Layne, 16, of Whitehouse on Saturday, April 4, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. with Chaplain Don Barron officiating. A simultaneous webcast will be available on the Stewart Family Funeral Home website www.stewartfamilyfuneral.com. To access the webcast, go to the Photo and Videos tab.

Landon passed away Friday, March 27, 2020 in Troup. He was born March 22, 2004 in Tyler. His parents are Mark R. Layne and Cheryl D. Layne.

Landon attended Green Acres Baptist Church for the majority of his life and made many friends there. He was a sophomore at Whitehouse High School and was on the cross-country team. He enjoyed photography, car DJing for his sister, snow-skiing and Xbox marathons.

Landon was preceded in death by his grandfather, Douglas Puckett, of Gilmer. He is survived by his loving parents and his siblings, Kaliska and Chenoa Layne of Whitehouse, Harrison Layne of Plano, Hadley, Caleb and Conner Layne of Bullard.

Landon was known to be kind, patient, funny and devilishly handsome. He was a comedian in most respects but did have serious moments that usually included his hair. He was quiet by nature but could always be counted on for an impromptu laugh. He was courageous in life and faithful to his family.

Love and thanks go out to friends and family who have surrounded us while we begin a new chapter. We will all miss him dearly.

Please feel free to leave comments for Landon's family on his tribute page on the Stewart Family Funeral Home website.

“ Hey Landon, I know that it's been over 5 years, but I think of you daily. I used to check this page every day and read peoples sweet stories about you and reminisce on old pictures of us. I just want you to know that I love you so much and nothing you or I or anyone else could do would make me forget you. I don't remember a lot about you, but I remember that we loved each other and you were and will always be the funniest & best brother ever.

“ In school I was out on medication that made me constantly nervous and anxious but Landon somehow always helped me chill out, like his vibe kept me relaxed, I mean it was mostly how funny he was that kept me from over thinking and Stuff like that but he got me through school without having panic attacks and probably didn't even know it himself but I feel like I have him to think for a sound mind, I only recently realized he'd have an obituary but I'm glad I found this, idk which afterlife I'll end up in one day but I'll be damned if I let that day we left school for summer break to be the last time I see him.

“ I remember back in junior high he would have his mom bring pizza for lunch and everyone hung out with him. Later he thought people only hung out with him because they wanted pizza and so he stopped bringing any, once he told me and the others about him getting upset with it, it was only me and a couple more who still stayed with him. I never really cared about the pizza anyways. We would always talk and make conversations about random things like girls and a show called Red Vs Blue. Once high school hit we barely hanged out due to him still being in junior high but after words I tried my best to find him. He was a really good friend to me, I just hope I was a good friend to him too. I'm so sorry for the loss.

“ Landon was always a great person to be around and usually had a smile on his face, despite his situation. We grew apart over time and distance, but I remember my early years when he, Hadley, Jake, Evan and I would all be at MiMi's having fun. Those are memories I'll always have, and it is heart-wrenching to see such a young soul go.

Love you, Landon. I hope that you are at peace and living it up in heaven.

Your cousin, River

Landon was someone you'd want to keep in your life forever. Someone you just couldn't let go of. He always had a way with making other people smile and laugh. When Landon was around there was no way someone was in a bad mood or stayed in a bad mood. He was always so full of life and brightened anyone's day up. I met Landon almost two years ago and I can't believe he's gone. But wherever he may be I hope he's living his best life up there..

“ Landon stayed with my husband and me for several weeks recently. He was respectful, and had a good sense of humor. He told us the way he survived some tough times was because he trusted God and he prayed. Rest In Peace , you are safe in the arms of Jesus Love, Nani and Papaw (the Kings)

Landon was the highlight and I enjoyed every minute I had with him. Landon was absolutely the most respectful and sincerely appreciative young man I believe I have ever met, wise beyond his years and he set an example. I told him how proud I was of him when he first arrived, and I'll carry the lesson a 15 year old taught me from here on out.

“Everyday in second period Landon would always come to my desk and hug me then talk for a little before class started. He put a smile on everyone's face in that class. People just lit up around him, he truly brought out the best in everyone. I know he did in me, I always felt so happy when I was with him. Landon would go out of his way to make sure the people around him were happy and I will always admire that! He was the most kind and equally funny individual I have ever known! I miss you already Landon and cannot wait to see you again!

“ I remember one Sunday morning at church, I saw Landon for the first time in a few weeks. I was so excited he was back and went to say hi. When I did, he gave me the biggest and best hug ever. After that day and when he returned to school, every single time he saw me in the hallway, he would say hey and give me a quick hug. Landon always had a smile on his face even on his worst days and I don't think there was a time I was with him that I didn't laugh. I'm excited for the day I can see him again in Heaven and get another Landon hug while we're hanging out with Jesus.

“ Landon was on of the funniest people I knew. He would come to my car before school sometimes and we would joke around for a while before we had to go inside. Landon and I never had any classes together, but I have no doubt that he could turn even the most boring class into my favorite one. When he laughed he was able to make everyone around him do the same. He touched so many lives in the time he had. I'll miss him.

“ I remember when I first met Landon him and his family were very kind and opening and he was just so much fun to be around. He was just stay bright sun shine on a gloomy day. Him and his family offered to open up their home to allow me to live with them for a while when my family was going through a hard time and I want them to know that I am here for them 100 percent and Landon was an amazing guy I wouldn't have changed anything about him. All the time in the hallway he called me his favorite black guy to see what I would say I just told him he was my favorite white guy. I know you're going to be running up there with those angels so just keep running Love you Landon R.I.P

“ Me and Landon connected with eachother through anime. Its all we talked about together even though he often spoiled it for me. During a mission trip, we talked a lot about an anime and we even watched an episode that had just came out. He used to tell me to Go Beyond and Plus Ultra which meant a lot and made me happy.

Another memory I have of him was at a church Halloween party two years ago. I brought my Japanese kimono outfit to wear as a costume, I never ended up putting it on but Landon got super happy when seeing it and ended up wearing it the whole time. So he was walking around the church with a girls lolita kimono and a Japanese styled umbrella. It brought a smile and laughter to everyone who saw it.

Landon was a good guy to have around and knew how to bring a smile to everyone's face.

Isabelle Stanley - April 01, 2020 at 10:12 PM

Isabelle I hope you saw where I posted the kimono 📷 picture on the tribute wall! I loved how Landon didn't really care how silly he looked if he could make someone laugh! Thank you for being a great friend that he could joke around with and be relaxed. Thank you for posting these memories.
