“ Uncle Larry and Aunt Jean.They were a pair! Salt and Sugar! I only have vague memories of him before they were married , even though he lived with our family. I never knew what he had to overcome at such a young age, by becoming an orphan at 13, and yes, he did overcome it so well, by leaving a legency of love and family.He was my favorite Uncle and did the best "Donald Duck" impression imaginable. He and my Aunt Jean used to have me to spend the night with them before Greg & Teri were born.They made me feel like the Queen of England in their tiny Garage Apt. on Lincoln/Gentry Parkway.I especially loved him because he would say whatever he thought and he was always interested in what I thought or what I had to say as well. He had such a dry wit, and a spark about him!! They broke the mold when he was born. He was loved, and will be missed.

“ Jean, I was so sad to hear of Larry's passing. He was such a pleasure to do business with. He taught me a lot about the corrugated business and I looked forward to his visits and the occasional lunches at Johnny Cace's. I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers. Look to our Heavenly Father for compassion and comfort. He will never leave you or forsake you.

God Bless you,

“ I had occasion to meet Mr. and Mrs. Patterson as one of Wade and Whitney's 3rd grade teachers. I also taught with Teri. Her parents came to many events at the school to support their grandkids. Wade and Whitney would grin from ear to ear every time they visited the school. I can tell you that it is obvious Mr. Patterson loved his family and he was loved tremendously in return. From stories I've heard, I believe he has passed on a great sense of humor, love and compassion to his kids and grandkids. There must be so many wonderful memories of special times spent together. I pray that God will bless those memories and keep them forever in your hearts. I am grateful to Mr. Patterson for his part in loving and nurturing his children and grandchildren and helping them grow into wonderful individuals. My prayers are with your family.
