A special and wonderful uncle, the only one that would take me fishing. I cherished every moment I spend with him on the water, it was a lot more than just fishing. I feel like I lost a great treasure in my life, it's hard knowing I'll never have another of those special fishing times with him. We love you Edna, you are just as special, you always made us feel welcome and well fed when we were there. I haven't got to see a lot of Leah Rae, Dan and Gary since they grew up but I love them all. God bless you all with the comfort and strength that only God can provide as you go on with life without him. He will always be with us through our great memories of him. All our love, B.W. and Barbara

For the Whitecotton family: a sterling leader of the Lord's church with a loving heart and gentle disposition. A blessing to know, a memory to cherish, a brother we hope to see again on the Last Day. Grace and peace to the family. From the Wheelers
