“ I knew Lena from Rose Heights Church days. Children’s choir & youth group. I hope you’re dancing in the sky, I hope your singing in the angel’s choir, and I hope that the angels know what they have. I’ll bet it’s so nice in Heaven since you arrived!

“ I only recently learned of Lena’s passing. We worked together for Andrews Children’s Place in the early and mid 90s. We reconnected in the late 90s and Lena has always had a special place in my heart. She was an extraordinary person who radiated light despite all the challenges she faced. Rest well, my friend. I will never forget you.

“ I'm heart broken to hear this. She was my friend in high school and I was tickled to reconnect with Facebook. She was a beautiful spirit through everything she went through. I'm glad her body is no longer fighting against her.
