“ Dear Dr. Pogue and Shannon,

What loving tributes to your Grandmother from her family and I loved her picture, she looked as if she was ready to give instructions to someone. Also, she LOOKS like a dedicated "Southern Baptist" elder leader. I know her church will certainly miss her.

Since Dr. Pogue you are a unique character, uh, person, you must have some of Lille Nadine Jones' genes in you. Wish I could have known her, we would have been great friends - one Baptist to another. What fun she is having today, greeting friends and family she has missed.

What a gift to leave with your family, church and friends when called home, memories of a beautiful Christian Lady who loved and served the Lord for 89 years. Bet she served many Sunday dinners (not lunches) to Baptist Preachers.

Sincerely,

Joy Prince

“ Our Aunt Nadine possessed a generous spirit and loving nature. She will be missed. We are sorry that we can't be there with you today.

Aunt Nadine you were the best cook in the southwest!

“ Danny and I know your hearts are broken with the loss of your mother - it is inevitable - just know she will always and forever be a part of you.

“ I just want to let you all know that we are thinking of you. Aunt Nadine was one of a kind. I remember when I brought Brian and Neely to Marshall for the first time, she was the first to hold them. Granny was right proud that she got to hold Jeff first, only because Aunt Nadine wasn't home at the time. And, of course, her cooking was definitely awesome. She was one special person. We will see you Monday.

*Grace and peace,
Brenda*
