“ Every day Lisa inspired people to become a better person and love unconditionally. If you asked Lisa how to spell "love", she would probably spell it like this, "Time". She took time from her busy schedule to help out others, as you can see from all of these lovely tributes to her. I will miss picking up the phone to hear that sweet cheerful voice. Lisa definitely let her light shine in this world and she will be sorely missed!

“ The first time I met Lisa she told me I was her new best friend - I just didn't know it yet. I couldn't have asked for a better friend who by example taught me how to a better Army wife, mother and friend.

“ In the short time that I was privileged to know her, I was amazed by Lisa's smile and her trust in her Savior Jesus. She is a kind woman who truly loved, cared, and prayed for her husband and children. Every friend and family member that I met of hers was friendly and loving too and they had stories upon stories of how Lisa had helped them or served in the school, library, etc. It was amazing to meet all of her kids and see how the stamp of Lisa's life is on each one of them. Lisa is truly a remarkable woman who lived out her life well! I look forward to seeing her again in Heaven.

“ I was blessed to get to know Lisa this past year and enjoyed spending time with her. Whether it was talking about our mutual love of books, our 11 year old daughters or just girl talk. Jackson, Lizzy and Beka, your mom was so proud of you! She loved to show me pictures of Lizzy and her gym and what she was doing with her life. She cherished her long talks on the phone with Jackson and considered them so precious to her. Lizzy, we talked about what a wonderful young woman you are becoming and what books you should read and how you love girly stuff. Lisa was definitely a blessing to those around her and held her family dear to her even if they didn't live close to her. Mark, Lizzy, Jackson and Beka I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Jim and I met Mark and Lisa when we were stationed in Ft. Carson, Colorado, in Tiger Squadron. Lisa was one of the first people to welcome me as a new Army wife, and made me feel right at home. She gave of herself in so many ways, and I am forever grateful for the times that she came to my aid when our husbands were away on assignment...particularly, during my late pregnancy, when she stayed up all night with me to get me settled into the hospital. She took her own sleeping children to a friend's house and came over right away, not hesitating for a moment. Lisa made many phone calls that night, even to my Mom in GA. My husband and I very much enjoyed the times we spent with Lisa, Mark and their precious family. Lisa lit up the room with her inner joy and smile everywhere she went. It's obvious that she touched many, many lives. Jim and I and our family send our love and prayers to the Reeves and Sinclair families. I am honored and blessed to have had Lisa as my friend!

Celebrating that she is in the arms of her Savior and that we will all be together in heaven with her someday! We missed you when you left Texas for Kentucky, but continued to pray for your family. I loved sharing with Lisa our common experiences & stories as Army wives, mothers and our faith in Christ Jesus. She always had a beautiful smile and a can do attitude whenever you needed a volunteer. She was so thoughtful when my mother-in-law passed away. She showed up at our door with a sweet gift of a taco soup recipe and all of the ingredients to make it in a bowl to nourish and comfort us. Robert & I pray you feel God's loving arms around you!*

“ I met Lisa in 7th grade and we became friends instantly. We then became best friends and that lasted all through high school (and after) even though we went to different schools, talking every single day. We grew up together, I am the woman I am because of the times we shared. We haven't spoken often over the last few years, but we never lost touch and when we spoke it was as if no time had passed. We were there for the big things - I was in her wedding and she and Jeanie made the trip to mine many years later. I remember the first time she told me about Mark, her Aggie with boots. She had found her prince. I remember when she called to tell me that she was pregnant with Bekah, she was so thrilled! So many wonderful memories. I am so happy that we spoke just last week. I heard her sweet voice one last time. I am so lucky to have had Lisa in my life, she will remain forever in my heart. Rest in heavenly peace, my friend.

I remember Lisa as always having a smile on her face and being one of the most thoughtful and giving persons. As she was a mom before I was, I always looked up to her and admired her. “ This is a photo of Lisa on the day a couple of weeks ago when her table arrived from Mr. Clint, her smile just lights up the room. Last summer, a group of us met for dinner and Lisa smiled and asked "How Baptist are we going to be tonight? We all laughed and ordered margaritas!! She had a great joy for life and cared so deeply, a week ago she asked me to donate personal items of hers back to the oncology ward at Dana Farber. She always put everyone she loved first in her life and was an example of strength and courage to us all. She was one of the strongest Christians that I have been blessed to know and she touched the heart of everyone she ever met with her loving ways. Rest in peace my friend until we meet again. “ Oh sweet Lisa, I have not talked to you in years but you will forever be in my heart. When I first moved to Texas in 1972 from Massachusetts, you were the very first person to befriend me. I believe you were the classroom captain that day and were assigned to show me the ropes of Gary Elementary. You were assigned to be with me all day, I had a friend at lunch and at recess. I had a Yankee accent and was very self conscous and you made me feel comfortable. I quickly became friends with you, Kelly Womack, and Lori Stewart. You were making big impressions on people 44 years ago Lisa, you will never be forgotten. ❤️❤️❤️❤️

Once you saw her infectious smile, you never forgot it. When I think of her, I still see her smiling face. And she was always smiling, through everything. “ I first met Lisa at Severns Valley I was Beccas after school teacher and then I watched Becca when her parents had a date night or something to do. Lisa was a great person inside and out I am so grateful that I was able to meet her. Her smile would light up a room. She just had a touch of cancer because her soul will live forever! A few years later, my daughter and I were so excited when she came to teach and then be the librarian at ECA, and for Beka to attend ECA as well. “ Lisa lit up Elizabethtown Christian Academy! She helped so many students and created a new library for the students there. She was a witness to staff and families each and every day. It was months before most of us knew of her battle with cancer, and even then she was a rock! She brought so much joy with her stories of Willie Nelson, Texas, and her sweet family! I'll never forget her and pray I can walk in the same light of Christ that she did each day she was here. May God comfort the friends and family of Lisa, and may she rest in peace.

“ I'll never forget Lisa's kindness towards me when my husband was deployed. I had not attended Severns Valley long and Mark was our Sunday school teacher. I called him to ask for prayer as I wasn't able to get around due to an injury and I was alone with 3 young children. Those that I met in church were the only people I knew as my husband left shortly after arriving to Fort Knox. It wasn't long after that phone call that Lisa showed up with groceries and attended to my children. She had a true servants heart. She was a wonderful example to me through her Bible Studies and her witness. Best of all she was my friend and I thank God for letting her be a part of my life.

“ I had the honor to sit by Lisa (or in close proximity) in many classes in high school. I loved her dedication to be a good person and good student which of course was part of her inherent goodness. I loved the times when she (normally quiet and studious) would erupt with the BEST laugh ever or one of her FABULOUS giggle fits...which made a lot of us laugh and smile along with her. I loved and admired how her walk and relationship with Christ was pure and strong at such a young age. Her legacy is her precious family and her love for all children but then she viewed us all as Children of God. I most certainly understand the love of God when I think about Lisa.... that's not something I share lightly at all. I don't know why but it seems like the Truly Good and great suffer more than they should but I pray Lisa rests peacefully in the arms and the love of Lord Jesus.

“ I met Lisa when we worked together at ECA and our friendship blossomed from there. Her smile lit up the room! Our families really enjoyed camping together. She was a huge Willie Nelson fan and would often wear shirts with him on it when we camped. I used to tell her "Camping with Lisa is 'Willie' fun!" Lisa didn't like to focus on her cancer and kept that smile even in the midst of the baggage that came with it. She loved the Lord, her family and her students...all of which was undeniable! Our lives were impacted in a wonderful way because Lisa was a part of it.

“ When we think about Lisa and family and your time in Oregon, we think of:

Firewood cutting (and dull chainsaws); the Oregon Coast & dancing in the surf (brrrrrr cold); Sunday dinners with family and friends; long runs (well maybe for Michael and Mark); Texas twang; teenagers - everywhere; laughter, singing, prayers and hugs.

Important facts we learned:

You could take the lady out of Texas, but never take Texas out of the lady.

Everything is bigger in Texas

Pampered Chef has a tool or bowl for "that"

Oh - and Mark is "soooo" handsome in his uniform

Everyone should watch "We Were Soldiers" to gain a better understanding of the life of a military wife

Smiling and sunshine makes everything better and before anything else... PRAY

Know our thoughts and prayers are with you all and even though it has been awhile since you lived in the "beautiful" state (maybe smaller than Texas, but still beautiful) - Lisa will always hold a special place in our hearts -

“ Lisa blessed me with her unbreakable spirit and her fierce zest for life. Sharing a part of our heavenward journey through Bible study at our church in Etown, me being her sub at ECA, praying, laughing, and crying together allowed me to see what a truly extraordinary woman she was. Asy husband said, 'maybe she is the librarian in heaven now'.

However, my heart is broken for Mark, Becca, Lizzie, Jackson, and the rest of her family. Be surrounded by God's love during this time of grief. That You, Lord for providing always, even in our darkest hour. Love in Christ,

“ She was more than a librarian and teacher to our kids at ECA she was a mother and a light. She was honestly the most upbeat person I've been around and she hid her illness and pain when so often she probably just needed rest, etc. I had the honor of taking her to and from a liver biopsy once and while I knew she was tired and probably uncomfortable as we spent the day together for the outpatient surgery she never once complained or acted upset nor did she act afraid. She chatted about her kids and parents and husband and Texas and we went to Chuy's restaurant a favorite of hers. She lived with purpose and made each day regardless of the day's events a good one.

“ I met Lisa at ECA in 2012. Our daughters became best friends and brought us together. Like our daughters, we bonded quickly. I didn't go many places back then and she motivated me to live my life. She invited Hannah and I to go to many places and events. We became really good friends.. I will always love her and treasure our time together. In our last conversation, we talked about her going to see the Lord. I told her she is reaching the ultimate goal of every Christian. She will see Jesus.
