“ Lisa always made me laugh when I knew her at Sam Houston. I'll never forget when she called to tell me there was a bird in the parking lot, and she couldn't leave it there! Yes, she became the proud owner of a cockatiel!

“ With heavy hearts we write a note here, just hoping the words will help fill the void we feel. She was a big part of our lives and gave us two wonderful grandson. I loved her like the daughter I didn't have. I am thankful we were able to keep contact the last few years. I pray peace and comfort for all she left behind. We miss you Lisa. Your other MOM

“ Laurie, I wanted to add a quick note. After reading Lisa's obituary, I saw where she attended court reporting school. I, too, graduated from Arlington Court Reporting College and have been a court reporter since 1993. Such a small world. So sad our paths didn't cross while reporting in the DFW area. Love, Paige
