August 2, 1962 - February 3, 2023

On February 3, 2023, Lisa Gail Youngblood, loving partner and beloved mother, sixty years young, passed away at home in Tyler, TX, after a sudden brief illness.

Lisa was born in Dallas, TX, to Walter and Martha Atchley. Lisa had a very special bond with her son Justin, who was the light of her life. And she had found her true love in Allen.

For all who knew her, Lisa lived life to the fullest. Our Lisa was bright, quick-witted with a healthy sense of humor, a wonderful friend, and a loving spirit. She enjoyed traveling and four-wheeling excursions with Allen and all of their many close friends. She loved our greatest President ever, Donald Trump, and was proud to have been a part of his campaign and was invited to his inauguration. Lisa loved America.

Lisa was predeceased by her father, Walter Carlton Atchley. She is survived by her soulmate, Allen Lee; her son, Justin Morris; mother, Martha Atchley; brother, Terry Atchley; sister, Carla (Lance) Perry; and cherished nieces, Kaylee Atchley, Tara Perry, and Rivers Perry.

“ Allen,

I am so sorry for your loss. I am also sorry that I cannot make it to the memorial services for Lisa. Please know that I would be there in person for you if I could, but I am always here for you if need anything. You will remain in my thoughts and prayers.

Dear Lord, please bless everyone with the comfort of your love and that they may face each new day with hope and the certainty that nothing can destroy the good that Lisa has given. May their memories of her become joyful, their days be enriched with friendship, and their lives encircled by your love.

Amen

“ I am so very sorry to hear that Lisa has passed. I've thought of her and shared our work and life stories frequently over the years, the last only the day before I heard the news. I look back on time spent with Lisa with love and laughter, and always with a smile. I still laugh about pranks we played at work, her story of Justin's vacuum cleaner monster.. there are quite a few. I was always touched by her love for Justin and her fierce dedication to friends and family. We always think there will be time to reach back out, but the older we get, the less I find that to be so. I sincerely wish that I had. Lisa was a joy and I will continue to miss her dearly. I pray for strength and peace for Alan and Justin and the rest of her family and friends. Lisa's spirit is a force that will continue to live on in all who were blessed to know her. Please accept my sincerest condolences.

*Love,
Imke*
