

Lois Marie Mueller

December 20, 1926 - April 17, 2013

Long-time resident of Tyler, Lois Marie Mueller, 86, passed away Wednesday, April 17, 2013 in Rancho Palos Verdes, California surrounded by family. Born December 20, 1926 in St Louis to George and Estelle Conlon, she shared her life with Charles Mueller and her five children. A member of Mary Magdalene Catholic Church, she graduated from Wellston High School and worked at Cotton Belt Railroad and McDonald-Douglass Aircraft before becoming a loving mother.

The positive light that radiated from Lois lifted everyone around her. She gave unconditional love to the highest degree. The web of love that she wove united her entire family through good times and bad. Her spirit infectious, her compassion extraordinary, her strength unmatched, she was an extraordinary human being.

She was preceded in death by her husband Charles Mueller, daughter Kim Mueller, son Craig Mueller, sister Lorraine Novak, parents George and Estelle Conlon, nephew Brian Novak, and son-in-law James Morris.

Lois is survived by her daughters Janet Driskell and her husband Rowland of Rancho Palos Verdes, California, Judy Morris of Sedalia, Colorado, JoAnn Batis and her husband Mike of Tyler, Texas; her grandchildren Marcia Gross, Adam Duncan, Jason Duncan, James Michael Morris, Craig Morris and Julia Batis; her great-grandchildren Jillian Gross and Alex Duncan; and nephew Barrett Novak.

Visitation is scheduled from 6:00-8:00PM on Friday, April 19, 2013 at Stewart

Family Funeral Home. The Funeral Service will be held on Saturday, April 20, 2013 at 10:00 AM at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception Church with Father McLaughlin officiating. Burial will follow at Cathedral in the Pines Cemetery in Tyler under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home. Pallbearers will be Mike Batis, Jason Duncan, Jeremy Gross, Craig Morris, James Michael Morris and Barrett Novak. Honorary pallbearers will be Julia Batis and Jillian Gross. If desired, memorials may be made to American Cancer Society, 1301 S. Broadway, Tyler, Texas 75701

“ So very sad to hear of Lois passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
I have so many fond memories of her and Kim, as well as all of the family.
I never before or since met anyone as loving and devoted a Mother as she was.
I know you will miss her and my heart goes out to you.
