

Lugenia "Jean" Kemp

December 8, 1931 - November 17, 2014

A Memorial service for Lugenia "Jean" Walker Kemp, 82, of Tyler, will be held on Thursday, November 20, 2014 at 11:00 AM at the First Presbyterian Church Chapel in Tyler with Rev. Pamela Leach officiating.

Mrs. Kemp passed away Monday, November 17, 2014. She was born December 8, 1931 in Belton, South Carolina to Henry Clarence and Vera Elizabeth Cox Walker.

Jean was married in Greenville, South Carolina in December 1955 to her sweetheart, Peter Kemp. They then moved to Jackson, Mississippi and also made The Woodlands home for 8 years before finally moving to Tyler in 2008 to be closer to their daughter and her family. Jean was a successful Real Estate Agent, a Stephens Minister at The Woodlands Community Church and was involved in various garden clubs through the years. She was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Tyler. Jean loved gardening and arranged the flowers for church services for decades.

She was preceded in death by her parents. Survivors include her loving family including her husband of 58 years, Peter E. Kemp; daughter, Jennie Gill and husband Scott of Bullard, Texas and their children, Sallie and Sean Gill; cousins, Dwight Hanks and Joel Hanks of South Carolina.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to First Presbyterian Church of Tyler, 230 W Rusk St, Tyler, TX 75701.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I know how difficult it is to lose someone. When I was coping with loss, Isaiah 25:8,9 helped me. God promises to wipe away our tears and reunite our loved ones back to us. He will resurrect them

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the family of Jean Kemp on her passing. Although I did not know her personally, I resided at Meadow Lake for 16 months. During that time I heard many wonderful stories about her. God bless you all, Debbie Crenshaw
