“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Our prayer is that God will surround your family with the comfort, care, and peace that only He can give. We pray that after your time of sadness, there will remain only the most pleasant of memories from a life filled with family, fellowship, and love. May God bless and be with you all. “ Knowing Lynn was a blessing in several ways to us. Having known him as a brother in Christ and being together in the "old Care Group" was a pleasure when we lived in Tyler. In addition to our spiritual sharing, Lynn was a partner in a business venture where he displayed diligence, integrity and honesty. Again, a pleasure to have him as an acquaintance and friend. We will miss him and are ready to serve the family in any way.

“ Dear Lynn,

Almost all of my memories from childhood to now, some 60 years have our families joined together. You have always been loved as a brother and always will be.

You, Jane and I have been through thick and thin over the years and nothing would or could ever diminish our love for one another.

Nothing can ever take your place in my heart. You are forever loved and I will see you again on the other side.

Love you

“ What a sweet man with a servant's heart! He always took the time to ask us about our children, calling both by name and showing genuine interest in them. As parents, this was a huge blessing.

“ I was very saddened to hear the news of Lynn's death. His family were longtime friends of mine, dating all the way back to being fellow Christians in South Louisiana. Lynn helped us immensely in selling our first home in Tyler when we moved to Henderson back in 1997. He was a very kind and caring person who I know will be missed deeply by his family and friends. Our family loved him very much!
