“ My wife Becky and I loved our good neighbor, Lynn! Through all the health issues Lynn has faced over the past few years, Lynn was most always upbeat, and always had a good word for anyone she met. Upon coming home from the hospital in 2018 after I had survived a cardiac arrest and open heart surgery, Lynn surprised me with a beautifully crocheted throw—which we still use to this day. We’ve been praying for healing for Lynn, but we know now that God had other plans for her. And, we know we will see her again one day soon! Prayers now for peace and healing for Steve as he goes through this time of loss of his sweet partner. And praying for her children and grandkids as well.

“ Lynn was a sweet & kind-hearted woman and she had an inner strength that embraced whatever life threw at her. She was such a joy to be with and always had kind words to say, a sense of humor and had a way of making you feel comfortable, like you had always been friends. I had the privilege of working with her in a temp position and she was sharp! She was a professional in her work, always friendly, proficient and even helping others in their work. We would have lunch and talk about our kids and grandkids and she would share how precious they were to her. I know she will be greatly missed. Praying God's comfort and peace over Steve, and her children.
