“ Lynnee, my Lynnee!

I lay a flower here, because you always were making beautiful flower arrangements designed/created by you to fill peoples hearts in good and hard times.

So much has happened recently, you fought for ten months to beat this terrible thing called cancer, I am so very sorry to have lost you, I am broken inside.

To be with you and the family during the last few days was a blessing, although heartbreaking at the same time.

As I shuffle through our life in pictures, I found some I'd never seen before, which allows me to learn a little bit more about my sis.

I see how much of a caring heart, great enthusiasm, and honest joy you carried as a child and, can still see the same wonderful you, as an adult!

Your family is still growing Lynnee, you'll be pleased to know two more grandbabies are on the way.

Always helping, always caring, always willing to be there!

I love you with all my heart!

My beautiful sister - my Lynne Christine
