“ My entry into Mal's Tribute Wall is very late because I just found out about her passing. I met Mal through American Airlines as we were in the same stewardess class together in 1964. Upon graduation we were assigned New York as our base and were roommates with 2 others in Manhattan. Mal was exceptional in every way possible. I have considered her a gem of a friend and only wish as adults we could have spent more time together but we didn't live in the same state later in life. My thoughts go out to family and friends as I know the loss you feel as I do. My love to you in heaven Mal for I know you are an angel there and your light is shining brightly. Thank you for your friendship which I will always treasure. Love, Dee (Judy) Lachner

“ Madeline was so full of life. Her energy and laughter were so contagious! I will miss her infectious laugh so much! If you ever met Madeline? You loved her, instantaneously. She never met a stranger and made an impression on everyone she knew. I loved her wisdom, intelligence, strength, and positive energy. She was always the life of every party! Oh, and I loved to watch her in the kitchen! Her home-made ravioli's?..... I will never ever forget. Best meal you'll ever eat! I admired the way she loved her family and friends and how she loved and served the Lord. She will remain in my memory and soul forever and always. I love you, Madeline. Love, Sissy Wilkinson

“ One Christmas time Maddy found out that we were going to be alone for Christmas. She graciously and warmly invited us to spend Christmas day with her and her family! We made homemade ravioli and drank wine she made herself ! We ended up Being invited again for years to Christmas in the Lewis home. We looked forward to it and enjoyed every minute of Maddy and her hospitality ❤️ She was a Blessing to so many 🌸
