“ I am so sorry to hear of Madge's passing. Last time I saw her was at the Wells/Hebb reunion in Howard, Kansas. We had many good times there, visiting, eating and enjoyed walking around with her kids.

May God pour His blessings on the family, hold each of you close in His loving arms and comfort each of you in His own way.

You will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ She was such a kind, beautiful and loving woman who touched the hearts of everyone she came into contact with. I feel blessed to have had the chance to have met her and for her to be a part of my daughter's life. I'm so very glad we had the opportunity to visit with her last October in Tyler. She and Ali seemed to have a special connection that was truly remarkable to witness. She will be missed but will forever live fondly in our memories.

“ I have been so blessed to have such a loving and caring Grandma in my life. I last visited her a week before Christmas and knew then God would be calling her home soon. It makes me smile to think she was met at the gates of heaven by Grandpa and they have spent the last few days catching up. Her mind and body have been completely renewed and she is sharp as ever... probably working a crossword puzzle or playing the organ.

Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self control. The fruit of the spirit are the qualities of character God grows inside a person. I can't think of a better list of qualities to describe my Grandma.

“ The last time I recall seeing Madge was at a Hebb reunion probably in 1995 or '96. She was always so cheerful, kind, and helpful. I remember the time she spent with the youth at church, finding music for us to sing, preparing refreshments, and driving us to various activities. She and Adron were always ready and willing to help in any way needed. The family has been blessed to have her for these many years, but I also know she will be greatly missed.

“ I was fortunate to meet Madge about 2 years ago. She was kind and engaging and clearly dearly loved her family very much. I know Kathy was very inspired by her grandma and has shared many wonderful stories about their adventures together over the years. Sending love and blessings to all the family.

“ I remember Madge as an extremely kind and nice woman. She was always involved in many activities and never missed one of her children's events and with 4 children, there were a lot of them. She was very active in the Baptist church and I remember being at a function there (perhaps the sextet was singing). Anyway, she made these swedish meatballs for her contribution to the dinner and I'll never forget them -- they were delicious. She must have been very, very busy with all her activities but she always said hello and a few kind words whenever I encountered her. She raised 1 upstanding woman and 3 upstanding boys, something for which any mother should be proud. My thoughts are with the family at this sad time, but Madge had a good life and I'm sure she's looking down from heaven with a smile on her face.
