

Mae Mullicane

January 9, 1925 - December 28, 2007

Services for Mae Mullicane 82 of Bullard will be held on Monday, December 31, 2007 at 1:00 PM at Central Baptist Church in Tyler with Rev. Kim Beckham officiating. Burial will follow in Whitehouse Cemetery under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home in Tyler. Mrs. Mullicane passed away on December 28, 2007 in Tomball. She was born on January 9, 1925 in Dallas to the late William Vernon and Myrtle Mae Saunders Francis. She grew up in the Dallas area, graduating from Tech High School. She was employed at LTV, a defense plant in Irving, during World War II. After World War II, she married James Mullicane in California on his return from active duty and relocated to Irving, Texas in 1948. There they began their family with the addition of four children. They then moved to Mission, Texas in 1972 and then to Whitehouse in 1984. Mrs. Mullicane was a Baptist who was active in her church and also served as a lay missionary to Mexico. She enjoyed cooking and was an accomplished artist. Her greatest joy came from caring for her family. Mrs. Mullicane was preceded in death by her parents and husband. She is survived by a loving family including a son, Jim Mullicane of Bullard; three daughters, Judy Kearney of Irving, Jane Power of Whitehouse, and June Jacobson of Magnolia; a sister, Virginia Hearn of Irving; 9 grandchildren; 3 great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be Chris Power, Jim Mullicane, Gene Hearn, Greg Hearn, George Hearn, Jr., Brennon Jacobson, and Calvin Power. Visitation is scheduled for Sunday, December 30, 2007 from 4:00-6:00 PM at Stewart

Family Funeral Home, 7525 Old Jacksonville Highway, Tyler, Texas 75703.
