

Margaret Irene Buie

November 22, 1918 - June 9, 2015

Private graveside services for Margaret Irene Buie, 96, of Tyler will be held at Sunset Memorial Park Cemetery in Gilmer with Rev. Dennis Cable officiating. Arrangements are with Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Mrs. Buie passed away Tuesday, June 9, 2015 in Tyler.

She was born November 22, 1918 in Lubbock to George Manion and Annie Irene Copeland Cosby.

Among the many things she enjoyed, some of her favorite were traveling and playing Mah Jongg. Margaret was a member of the Marion Wilcox Garden Club, an accomplished pianist, and was a loving and involved grandmother to her grandchildren. In addition to her parents, Margaret was preceded in death by her husband, Bill Buie; son, Neill Buie and sisters, Martha Marshall and Mary Mathis.

She is survived by her loving family including daughter, Ann Buie Hightower of Tyler; grandchildren, Anna Shelton Pfohl and Will Shelton and great-grandchildren, Whitney and Clay Pfohl and William and Mary Lauren Shelton. If lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Marvin United Methodist Church "Children's Playground Fund", 300 W. Erwin, Tyler 75702.

“ We are saddened to hear of the passing of Margaret yet we rejoice knowing she is in Heaven. Thank you so very much for the kindness & generosity you are extending to children by having memorials in Margaret's honor be made to the creation of a new playground at Marvin United Methodist Church. This is a lovely & joyous way to pass on her legacy...we hope the laughter and love created in this happy place brings many smiles to Heaven!
