“ Aunt Marie,
She truly loved our Heavenly Father, she lived her life so that if you looked at her you would know by her example that she believed in Christ. I loved spending what little time I was able to with her, listening to her stories of her life, and getting a great perspective on how to live. She had a very giving heart. One of the things I loved most about her is that if she felt you should do something different or better she loved you enough to give you that advice. You will be truly missed Aunt Marie, the world definitely has been a better place because it had you in it. Love you

“ I can honestly say that I enjoyed every second I got to spend with my great aunt Marie. She was an inspiration to me. We would sit and talk about everything, from cooking to traveling or even about the weather. You could pretty much guarantee that she would throw in an amazing story about her life and our family history too. We could pass the hours by doing puzzles together and talking. It would always seem like a short time had passed, then one of us would look up to find that it was dark outside, hours had passed and now it's after midnight. She truly knew how to inspire you to live and love and travel and see the world. She knew how to light a fire in you by listening to you and giving you any advice she had for you and then she would tilt her head, look you dead in the eye and give you a nod and a uh-ha to go ahead and do it. She believed in you and somehow she could convince you to believe in yourself. She had a grace to her from her movement to her heart and even deep in her soul. You were guaranteed to feel her grace and presence if she were anywhere near you. She was truly beautiful inside and out. I will miss her dearly but I also know that I am truly blessed because I will always be able to close my eyes and hear her voice and enjoy the sound of her laughter as I reminisce all the wonderful memories I have of her. She was truly amazing and I am truly grateful to have had her in my life. Thank You aunt Marie and God bless you!

With all my love,
Candida

“ What a lovely 'lady' Marie was! Every Sunday that I was able to catch up with her at church, she beamed with joy at seeing a friend. Her walker was no match for her determination to arrive at HER place on the front row in front of the Preacher so she could hear every word. We will truly miss her. God bless all her family.
