“ We did not know that Marilyn was ill. I had something amusing to tell her, and e-mailed her. She answered, shared the humor, then mentioned her cancer, matter-of-fact. She also took time to pay me a compliment about something of mine that she'd read, and to ask about our lives. That was Marilyn--caring about others, and remembering friends.

“ Bill and family,
I'm sure you know how very special Marilyn has always been to me. She started out as my Bible study teacher shortly after we moved here and quickly became a mentor and good friend. I will always cherish the encouragement and wisdom she gave me when I went back to school. The hours we spent talking over everything under the sun, while she proofread my papers for school, were more precious than gold. She is loved and missed, tremendously.

“ Dear Bill,

I wanted to send my condolences and let you know what a blessing it was for me to spend time with Marilyn. I well remember what a wonderful host she was during our small group study for the Purpose Driven Church and how dedicated she was to her duties as a Sunday School leader. I was always amazed and impressed by her ability to get things done, and done right. I pray that you and your family will find peace in the promise she has thru Christ Jesus. May God bless and comfort you in the days ahead.

*Your brother in Christ,
Mark*

“ We all remember what a gracious person Marilyn was - so brilliant and pretty. I am so glad we all saw her at the last reunion. We are sorry for your loss, but I know the reunion with Dr. and Mrs. Bennett is a beautiful, wonderful worshipful time with the Lord. We, as Christians, try and remember that death is a homegoing for the faithful - and marks the end of earthly suffering.

“ Marilyn was always willing to share from her vast knowledge and experience. I especially enjoyed sharing reading material with her as we held so many of the same opinions on issues of the day. She will be sorely missed. She was very proud of her family.

Rest in peace, Marilyn.

“ I will always remember the gift Marilyn presented me one Christmas, The Navity, a contemporary view of the Bethlehem miracle. She was so gifted and inspirational; a favorite patient whose visits I always eagerly anticipated. Besides her legendary wit and wisdom, her evangelical spirit and quiet witness have created a legacy that will live for many years! What blessing she was to me and will be to the heavenly cloud of witnesses.

“Marilyn was a gifted Bible teacher, and she has inspired us to put our Biblical knowledge into practice. We are still learning, but we thank her for helping us to move forward in our faith.

Bret and I are sorry we can't help celebrate her life this weekend in Tyler. We are enjoying time together in Seattle.

We will continue to pray for comfort and for peace for your family. We love you!

“Words fail, but beautiful heart memories will always linger. Marilyn and I were childhood friends in Kilgore. The Bennetts's home was my second home and I rejoice at the good times we had. I felt as one of the family. Dr. Bennett, Mary Lee, Marilyn, Kate and Susan were an inspiration in my youth. I am blessed to have had Marilyn as a special friend. Kate and Susan, I love you. Bill, my prayers are offered for you and yours.
