“ Our small group of veteran friends has lost one of our most cherished members and the world has lost a GREAT soldier and person.....but, he is now in a much happier place where he is not suffering any more.....but, those of us here on Earth will always miss our friend and partner. While we are saddened at our loss of our friend, neighbor, veteran and partner in all endeavors we must take joy in knowing that he is now with his Savior and enjoying the pleasures Heaven has to offer.....

We miss him so much....

“ Mario was a great man of integrity, honor, and a unique sense of humor. He lived by the "Code", touching so many lives along his way.

We will miss your intriguing storytelling at all of our family gatherings. There will be a void no one can fill. Family isn't always blood but more so, it's love. You were family.

You've gained a new set of wings..Fly High Mario.

The world is a lesser place today without you Mario but you are free of pain and misery and for that we are glad. Always enjoyed the group meetings and friendly banter, stories and jokes we told each other. Our deepest sympathy goes to your wife and family.

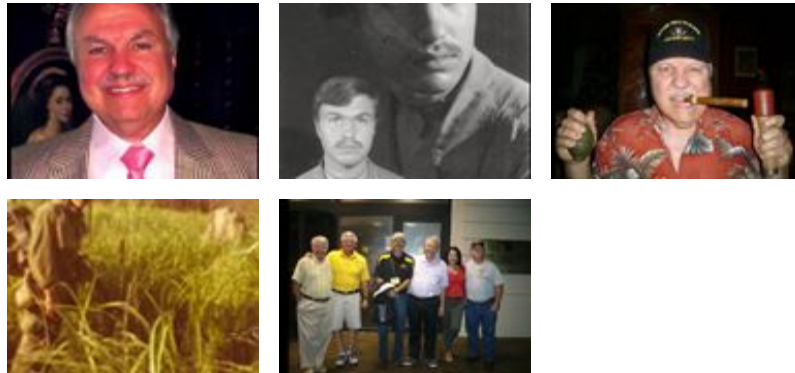

Semper Fi friend!!

“ Mario, our Foggyday brother was an excellent leader & did his best to ensure that we all were safe. We dug many foxholes together & filled many sandbags. I have fond memories of Mario, Woody, Chuck, Big Ed, Smitty and others that have preceded me in passing. I laugh with memories of Mario's cigars of which he made sure I had plenty. Mario was an inspiration and definitely will be missed but forever in our hearts and memories.

Rest In Peace good brother!

Condolences to Mario's family for their loss

“ I remember Mario's smile and friendship. Last time I saw Mario was in the late 70's when he stopped by my house to say hi and see how I was. This is the type of person Mario was. He will be missed and never forgotten!!!!

“ It's always sad to lose a Brother Sky Trooper. The loss of Mario is especially sad , he was such an inspiration and such a special man. A Soldier's, Soldier and a Man's, Man.

My heart and eye's are crying, but that's OK. I was blessed to have know Mario.

My Condolences to Mario's family and the "Foggy Day" Family.

“ So sad to hear of the loss of Mario. He was like a brother to me during the entire time we served together in the army. I will always cherish the experiences and memories of our time together. We watched over each other and I could always count of him during the good and bad times. I will miss my friend greatly. Rest In Peace Mario.

“ Mario will always be a legendary figure in A Company, 5th Cavalry. If we had a Hall of Fame he would be a unanimous vote. A chunk of Foggy heart is now missing. He was a dear friend and compatriot to me.

Love you Buddy.

“ We were saddened to learn of Mario's passing and send our heartfelt condolences to his family. Mario had left A Company before I arrived but I got to know and admire him through our Foggy Day reunions. I learned from my brother soldiers how valuable he was to them as a friend and most importantly, as a leader. He will be missed.

“ In Vietnam Foggy Day was the call sign of the company Mario served in. Years later many of us from that unit began to reconnect. We now feel like a family that includes the wives and children of our Foggy Day brothers. Our family is mourning the loss of our brother Mario. His charisma, good humor, values and love for us all will be missed, but we will remember him.

“ My deepest sympathies to Demaris and the Grisanti family. Mario was a great soldier and an outstanding combat leader. Those of us who served with him looked to him for leadership and so much more. He was always there for us. I'm so glad that we reconnected post war and renewed our friendship. God bless Mario, I will never forget you.. Tom Holcombe a 1/5 First Platoon
