“ Although I never had the privilege of meeting Nana in person, I have been blessed by her legacy. Pam is such a wonderful godly woman. Her dedication to the Lord and her family, I know, were taught by her mother.

Thank you, Lord, that Nana is at home with you. Please comfort the family and give them your joy. In Christ's name.

“ Dear family of Marge,

To adequately express all that Marge meant to me would take pages, for she was one of those rare people whose life was like a crystal clear lake, reflecting her love and devotion to the Lord and her family. She was such a loving, caring, considerate, generous person. Her love for all of you, her family, was so strong, and I felt like I knew each of you because of her sharing about you. She was so proud of each one of you. She had such a consistent prayer life. I know it was so hard for her to lose your dad, for they spent each day reading God's Word and praying together, traveled together, and shared their lives for over 50 years. She had such a strong trust in the Lord, and continued reaching out to others after Ed went to be with the Lord. I am one of those that she prayed for and supported financially for about 30 years. Now she can meet some of the Tucanos in heaven that she prayed for and gave of her resources to reach with God's love.

Whenever I visited Marge, I came away knowing that I had been in the presence of one who walked very closely to the Lord. My life has been enriched by knowing Marge, and I am grateful for the privilege of knowing both Marge and Ed. Lovingly, Betty Welch

“ We met Marge (Nana) at Jim and Pam's home here in Alexandria, MN. She was even at our house and visited with my mother-in-law. Even though we didn't know her for very long, it was evident that she will always be remembered as such a sweet, caring and loving person. She is definitely in a better place and we will get to see her again some day. God Bless All of You During this Difficult Time.

“ Dear Family.

You could never have more caring and loving parents than Ed and Marg. It was always a delight to be with Marg, though not often, in these later years.

Ed has waited a long time (In earth years) for Marg to join him. Your loss is his gain.

What a blessed memory you have of a truly Godly mother. Our prayers are with you.

“ Earl and I wish you our sincere sympathy on the loss of your mother. We remember fondly of all the times our parents had with your parents. Had we not met your parents, I feel many of my family would not be ready to go to our LORD. We rejoice with you...all of our parents are with our LORD.

Sincerely,

Karen(Beahm)and Earl Watkins

“ To Pam, Steve, Roger and the Family of Marjorie Conaway:

I want to tell you on behalf of the Beahm's that we loved your mother. Each of us tried to visit Marge when we were at the cabin. She was always available to us. She challenged us with thought provoking questions and loved us as a dear friend to us and to our mother and dad. I remember fondly that my parents watched as your parents' walls went up. Your parents were there when my parents' walls went up. We always looked to see if the light was on at your chalet when we drove up. If it was, all was in order. If it was out, the house still smiled. We will miss your mother. Personally, in 1970, on the evening of August 10th, I heard a work group talk in your parents' living room. I made a confession of faith that night and actually became a Christian. My life has been different since that date. I am grateful for the encouragement Marge gave to each of us. I thank God for her life. God bless you at this time. Lovingly, Jan Beahm Hayes

“ Our family members have many fond memories of both Ed and Marjorie from our early Trail West days. My parents, Dorothy and Anol Beahm, cherished their long friendship and strong Christian fellowship. We are truly sorry for your loss.

“ We have loved Marge and Ed for many years and were blessed to worship with them at Fifth St. Pres. We enjoyed visiting with them at the Chalet at Trail West and appreciated their friendship and encouragement along the way. Zelma loved picking out Sharon Young clothes to take to Marge while she was in the care facility, and it was fun to see how it lifted Marge's spirits up when she got new clothes! It was always good to visit with her. She and Ed are with our Lord now, and what a blessing that is!

“ I was saddened to hear the news of Mrs. Conaway's passing, but pleased to know that she has gone home to the Lord. Mr. and Mrs. Conaway played a pivotal role in my life when I was a teenager, and were present the week I trusted Christ to be my Savior. They were only kind, and understanding of my questions, and were so very gracious over the years to my family. Mrs. Conaway was a true lady, and a wonderful example of a loving wife, wonderful mother, and sweet sweet woman.

“ We would like to send our condolences to the Conaway family. I have many fond memories of Aunt Marjorie and Uncle Ed. It was always a pleasure to see them, whether we were visiting Tyler, Buena Vista or their visits to the farm pulling the latest Airstream. Their love of travel has always been an inspiration. Our thoughts are with you all. Love, Bill, Terry and Rane

“ Sweet Pam, Jim and family,
We enjoyed so much spending time with Nana when we visited you a couple of months ago. Nana was such a gentle and delightful lady. Thank you for sharing her with us. I see lots of her in you Pam and we are all blessed by it.
Our love to you both and to your family.

“ Dear Conaway Family,
Janet and I are deeply saddened by the loss of your beloved mother. But assured in the thought of knowing she is in heaven with Uncle Ed and her brother Clem, our dad. I remember Aunt Marjorie as a very gracious and loving aunt who was not afraid to show us that she loved the Lord. It was always evident that she loved her family dearly, and it was clear that nothing mattered more than family. She was a sweet, sweet woman and will be missed dearly.
Love,
Greg and Janet Baldwin
