“ Today, as you lay Mary to rest, please know that I’ll be thinking you. It’s a very hard thing to lose your mom. I know she and my mom had a lot of fun times together! And you can see in the pictures that Mary enjoyed her kids and grandkids very much.

I know my parents enjoyed all the fun times they had with their “Texas” friends as young adults before they moved to Iowa, and looked forward to renewing those friendships whenever they got back to Tyler.

May peace and comfort come to you through time and happy memories. I’ll be praying for that. My deepest sympathy.

“ My sympathies to the Mary Brasher family. May you all have peace and treasured memories of such a beautiful soul. Mary and Ted were dearest friends of my parents and married in a double ceremony on the same day in Turnertown, Texas. I'm sure they are having a great reunion in heaven today. Blessings to all of you.
