“Mary was a precious sister in Christ, beloved by many, and greatly appreciated for her tenderness of heart. Lee and I send our warm and sincerely best regards to Bob and Amber, as well as the entire Trokey family (and all the in-laws), who were so much a part of Mary's life. Rather than weep at her loss, we will rejoice in her triumph, that the hope in which she served the Lord has now been realized in His Presence, and will yet be fully granted when the Lord returns with the saints in the morning of the resurrection.”
