“ Miss Mary was one of the sweetest women I knew. I met her when my sister married into the family, and loved her from the start. One of the funniest memories we shared together was that when I talked to Mary, she always seemed to ignore me. She finally told me that the reason was I was talking into her deaf ear. LOL. God bless her... we had a big laugh together about that. I will miss her very much.

“ Aunt Mary was a beautiful lady inside and out and tough as nails. I remember how she always loved me in mint green. I love the way that she'd look at me with a twinkle in her eyes, a smile on her face, & she always gave me big hugs. I loved to hear her say my name because it just sounded nice coming from her. I always loved getting to stay at her house some during the summer months. She was always so caring and nice. I loved her then and I'll love her always. Her strength and faith was unbelievable. I will always miss you my beautiful Aunt Mary and I promise that we will be reunited one day in the kingdom of heaven. I bet you are stunning with your Angel Wings! I love you, Pamela Rhea
