

Mary Faye Hodde

February 6, 1937 - December 19, 2020

Mary Faye Skelton Hodde passed away on the 19th of December 2020, at hospice in Tyler, Texas. She was the wife of James T. Hodde. They shared sixty-one years together.

Born in Springdale, Arkansas, Mary was the daughter of Kathryn Sigler Skelton and Robert Donald Skelton. Mary graduated from Arkansas Polytechnic College with her bachelor's degree in mathematics. She pursued a career as a programmer and research analyst at White Sands Missile Range, New Mexico.

Mary will also be remembered for her passion for teaching young children about the Bible. For many years she taught four- and five-year-olds in Bible classes. She also invested her heart and time in organizing and preparing classroom materials for other teachers.

Mary is survived by her husband James, as well as her children Doug Hodde, M.D. and his wife Shelly, Dana and her husband Jim Jones, and Jeannette and her husband Matt Cheney. Mary also had a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren: Sarah Atkinson, her husband Grant, and their children Isaac, Lucy, and Mira; Katherine Hodde, her husband Taahir Ahmed, and their son Jahan; and Alice Sanderson and her husband David; Travis Jones, his wife Morgan, and their daughter Skylar; Emily Mills, her husband Ian, and their daughter (unnamed); and Morgan Kelly Jones.

The private family service will be held Tuesday, December 22nd at the Rose Lawn Cemetery in Whitehouse, Texas.

Tribute Wall

“ Stewart Family Funeral Home created a Webcast in memory of Mary Faye Hodde

Stewart Family Funeral Home - December 22, 2020 at 04:09 PM