Mary Lynn Tuttle, 88, passed away on Sunday, July 6th in Tyler, Texas.

Born June 23, 1926 to Grover and Agnes Hendrick Cecil, Mary Lynn grew up in Wichita Falls with her two brothers, O.B. and Grover, and her sister, Bernice.

Mary Lynn met Levelle "Dutch" Tuttle and they were married in Dallas, Texas.

They were blessed with three children: Brian, Janet, and Jeanne. Dutch and Mary Lynn made life-long friends in each of the cities they lived in before settling in Tyler in 1963 to raise their family. More than a loving wife and mother, Mary Lynn was a savvy business woman who owned and operated Steamatic of East Texas until her retirement in 1991. During her career, she was highly respected by her employees and her peers as both a mentor and business person. After retirement, Mary Lynn continued to play an integral role in the direction and success of the company that she established in 1969.

Mary Lynn was a devoted member of the Catholic Church who served the diocese faithfully as a volunteer and active parishioner. She was active in the Tyler community as a business-owner, member of many civic, church and charitable organizations. Mary Lynn loved listening to big band music, playing bunko with friends and spending time with her family who will miss her guidance and inspiration. Those who knew her will miss her most for her incredible sense of humor, strength of character and a door that was always open to friends and family.

Mary Lynn was preceded in death by her siblings; her husband, Levelle; and her daughter, Janet. She is survived by her loving family including her son, Brian; daughter, Jeanne Ramunni and son-in-law, Louis; her granddaughter, Julie Franklin and her husband, Ron Jr.; her grandsons, James Brian Tuttle, Jr., and his wife, Leah; Clint Tuttle and his wife, Julie Wimmer; Craig Heitmiller; Brad Heitmiller; and Scott Ramunni. She will also be greatly missed by her three great-grandchildren: Camille, Everett "Rett" and Charlotte Franklin.

Pallbearers will be J.B. Tuttle, Jr., Clint Tuttle, Craig Heitmiller, Brad Heitmiller, Scott Ramunni and Ron Franklin, Jr.

“Mary Lynn Tuttle was my sweet neighbor on Homestead Drive in Tyler, TX. Mary and I shared many cups of coffee, lunches, and dinners at different places in Tyler. The Potpourri House was our favorite when Mary Lynn was able to be out. I miss her, and know she will continue to be in my fondest memories. I send my sympathy to Brian, Jeanne, and her family, along with wishes for peace and contentment as you face the coming days. I will miss her sweet smile, and the humor she often added to my days. Thank you for sharing your mom with me the last four years, “*Jeanne and I went to tyler junior college together and worked at tmfhs together in 198? She taught me how to do my first abg on a baby! Mrs Tuttle and her family fed me many meals and I will never forget how much fun their house was. I enjoyed that time of my life because of Jeanne and her family. Much love and fond memories.
