“ I knew Maryetta from when my husband, Chuck McKinley worked with her at KNUE, for Don Chaney. I bumped into her one time at Foley's. She was always funny and very energetic. She was buying a pair of socks for Chuck for Christmas. Later, she helped us adopt a goat for my sister Nora. She always had a big heart and was fun to be around. Condolences to her family...

“ *Dear Taylor Family,
My condolences and prayers for the loss of your mom. Although I haven't seen Maryetta in years, she was always a "favorite mom" during our growing up days in Tyler and her beauty inside and out was never forgotten.
God Bless,
