“ Scott, Kevin and family. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Maxine was a loving mother, grandmother, sister, daughter, and friend. Maxine is someone who I could always depend upon and was a joy to be with. I will miss her laughter and our conversations over the years. She was truly someone very dear to me. Please know that her spirit lives on through all of you.

May God bless and keep you all.

Love,

“ *Dear Scott, Kevin and families,
We are so sorry to hear about Mimi. Andy told her several months ago while talking online that since his mother had passed away in 1997 that he felt like she was his mother too and he felt like Scott and Kevin were his brothers. We know that we loved her just as much as we loved our own mothers and we will miss her greatly. We have so many great memories of "porch sitting" and "playing dominoes" and once we moved to North Carolina, playing Poker Stars till the wee hours of the morning...only to have her finally make us lose all our chips. We truly wish that we could be there for the services but you know that we will be there in spirit. If there is anything that either of us can do, please do not hesitate to call. We love you guys!*

“ Scott and Kevin (and family)...I do not have the words to express how sorry I am for your loss. If you need anything, or there is anything I can do...don't hesitate to ask. We have been friends for way to long to stand on formality. Just ask, and I will do whatever I can. Love to you both and your families...Julie and the boys

“ Mama,
It's been a week now, and I cannot tell you how much I miss you. I walk through the home, and all I want is to see you. I awake in the morning, and I want, so badly, to see you sitting on the couch, drinking coffee from your little white cup. GOD how I miss you!

Mama, if words could tell your story, you know I would. But know now, as I told you last week, you did well. You raised two good sons, and you taught us how to be men. Not many Fathers can say that. Mama, rest now, and know I will always love you, and I will always miss you.

Good Night, Sweet Dreams, I LOVE YOU, Don't Forget to say your prayers,

Love,

Scott, Michelle and Cody
