

Melvina Newsome Buie

May 25, 1931 - February 11, 2022

Melvina Newsome Buie, 90, went to be with the Lord on February 11, 2022, following a long battle with Alzheimer's. Melvina was born on May 25, 1931, in Mt. Vernon, Texas, the daughter of Mattie Lou Davis and R.A. Newsome. She was preceded in death by her sister, Billie Newsome Mason. She is survived by her loving family, including her husband of seventy-three years, Herb Buie; sister, Joy Newsome Bryant; son, Rex Buie and wife, Miae; daughter, Robin Buie and grandchildren, Mallory, Madison and Emma; brother-in-law, Norris Buie; and sister-in-law, Lavonne Harris.

Melvina married her high school sweetheart, Herb Buie, on August 27, 1948. She was seventeen and he was eighteen. According to Herb, he first noticed Melvina Newsome in the eighth grade, and they started dating the next year during ninth grade. Herb remembers that she was very pretty and popular. He once said that all the boys in South Tyler wanted to date Melvina, but he had a strategy. "I decided I would take her to church. I went there seeking Melvina, not the Lord; but I got both!" A short time afterward, Melvina and Herb both made their public professions of faith, accepting Jesus Christ as their savior. One particular scripture became the guiding light for their lives together, Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

In her early years, Melvina worked as a payroll clerk for Bryant Heater, now

Carrier Corporation, and then worked in bookkeeping at Tyler Packing Company, before retiring to take care of her children. The only time Melvina was apart from her husband was when he was drafted during the Korean War. Melvina was considered in every decision she and Herb ever made. Her heart's desire was to bless and help others with all their resources. She never desired earthly goods but wanted to store up her treasure in Heaven. "We have a duty to give back to God for the blessings He gives us by giving to those who are less fortunate," a belief Melvina and Herb shared.

Around 1955, Melvina became an avid hunter and continued for sixty years. She still holds the record for the biggest deer killed in her hunting group. She was a "sharp shooter" with a 30-06 rifle. She was also a very humble and gentle wife, mother and friend. One of her pastimes was sewing for her daughter Robin, and later in life, for her grandchildren. Many said she could have been a professional seamstress. Once her children were grown, one of the things that Melvina wanted to do was travel, beginning in 1984. For the next thirty years, Melvina and Herb were able to see most of the world.

Together, Melvina and Herb dedicated their lives to serving others as much as they possibly could. Melvina, along with her husband, have been supportive in many different ways, including scholarships at Lee University, Tyler Junior College, UT Tyler, and others. She was determined to help create a better life for as many as she could.

Nine years ago, Melvina was diagnosed with Alzheimer's. Throughout her illness, Herb was by her side every day, just as he has been for the past seventy-three years. The loving relationship Melvina and Herb shared is rooted in their deep and abiding faith and their mutual love and respect for one another. Sharing their love of Jesus Christ has always been central to their lives together. Herb is grateful that Melvina is at peace and now in the arms of her Lord and Savior.

“And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast.” – 1 Peter 5:10

You and Melvina, as 18 year olds, would never have imagined all the experiences you would have in your 70+ years together. A great life well lived. May you find comfort in knowing Melvina is no longer dealing with the symptoms of Alzheimer's.*

“ I remember meeting the Buie family in the early 70's in the Tyler Church of God located on Loop 323. My wife, Denise Stoker Bass, knew the family many years prior.

Later, in the mid-seventies, while pastoring a small church in Palestine, TX, I served as the evangelist in a revival at the Tyler church. I will never forget the kind expressions and attentiveness of Brother and Sister Buie. What a blessing to a young minister!

Sister Buie has completed her earthly race (for the time being) and is now at rest with her Savior, loved ones and friends.

Heaven's Sounding Sweeter all the Time!

“ My aunt and uncle got married when I was about seven months old in 1948; so they have been together almost my entire life. That alone is a living testimony of true love and devotion to each other. When I think of Melvina over the years, I remember her "movie star" beauty as a young woman and how that beauty bloomed inside and out through the years. She lived her faith, and it was evident in every aspect of her life. Her love for my uncle and their children was obvious throughout their lovely home. She was a wonderful cook and homemaker, and it was a joy to be in her company. I have wonderful memories of cookouts and homemade ice cream at their home on many occasions as I was growing up, and Melvina was always a gracious hostess. She was a lady in every sense of the word. I am so blessed to have her as my aunt.
