“ For months I have tried to contact Michelle and was hoping she had finally decided retire to Texas as we had often discussed. Today I was devastated to learn this warm, bright light now shines elsewhere. We last spoke in August when she cancelled our monthly appointment for the first time in five years. She gave little explanation and promised to call as soon as she felt better. Her kindness and knowledge helped me through the deaths of those closest to me. I will remember her always and continue sharing the healing she shared with me.

“ I've been worried about Michelle and unable to contact her for a couple of months. Today I found the obituary in a google search. I originally began treatment with Michelle in Royal Oak, in the early '90's and she became a valued friend. I last saw her in August or September. I wish I could have helped her, as I'm sure, you, her family, do too. I'm sure there are many others who love and miss her as I do. Best wishes to you!

I just found out the devastating news about Michelle alov hashalom. I'm shocked. I had been a client of hers for several years . She was always so kind , helpful and unassuming. May her soul ascend even closer to Gd. May Gd comfort the family among the mourners of Zion and Yerushalayim .

“ I will miss Michelle terribly. I had the privilege to spend time with her this past number of months. It was such a blessing to talk with her, learn from her, and receive care the past few years. She had such wisdom and touched so many people. Michelle was always giving and needed to have her own cup filled and to simply abide. My heart and prayers continue for Daryl and family, and her dear sisters and family in Texas. There will be so many of us who are forever changed by her heart of gold and ceaseless concern and healing touch! God bless you all during this difficult time! 🌸🙏👉

“ Michelle supported so many people in so many ways! From monthly meditation groups, one-on-one interaction with patients, consistently educating and helping people take ownership of their health, I watched and experienced her giving nature for decades. Michelle never stopped giving.

She was a mighty force, bright light and powerful lightworker in such a little-tiny, sweet body. She was an old soul & wisdom oozed from her being! I'm so glad to have known Michelle, learned from Michelle & experience Michelle's loving nature.

May you rest in peace & your legacy live strong with all the lives you enhanced, Michelle! Your spirit changed me & I will forever be a better person and teacher because of you. XO

I was Michelle's physical education teacher and cheerleader sponsor during her years at Roberts Jr. High. She was the sweetest young lady and so kind. Her parents were very supportive of all aspects of our school activities. I'll treasure many members of the Sobel family. Pat Hudson Harris

From reading the tributes to Michelle, I realize that precious friend I knew in High School just grew in beauty and wisdom and grace. What a blessing to have known this amazing lady. Her smile and laugh were infectious. I don't think I ever heard an unkind word from her lips. Michelle was open and loving to everyone. What an amazing legacy. She will be so missed. Tight hugs and comforting prayers to all her family and friends.

Michelle was my soul sister in so many ways! She gently guided me and so many others in monthly Siddah Yoga meditation, followed by tea and treats. We laughed mightily and shared family stories during treatments! I can honestly say Michelle saved my life when I was very sick and was so selfless in her love and help. She was a light for so many, sweet, kind and always had a new remedy to help heal you. Small and mighty, kind and loving! I miss her and cherish our times and memories together. It was an honor and privilege to help her this past year, and for that I'm so grateful. Michelle, I hear your voice and laughter and know you are singing with the angels. Much love to all her family, and so glad I got to meet Suzanne and Felicia. Love Christina
