“ What a lovely lady Mrs. Crawford was. I met her when my daughter's in-laws moved near her. Every morning on her walk she would pick up their paper and place it by the door. Such a sweet, kind lady. And her penmanship was gorgeous.

This lady was one of God's most precious creations. She was always thinking of others, never herself. She made everyone who knew her feel special. I love her dearly and will miss her greatly until we meet again. BSF won't be the same without that beautiful smile, but praising God that your faith is now sight! Jan Burkhart
