January 10, 1921 - September 15, 2018

“Aunt Mick”, as she was known to her family and friends, was born January 10, 1921, and passed away September 15, 2018, at the age of 97. She retired in 1981 from the Tyler ISD where she was a Food Service Supervisor for 26 years—first at Hogg Jr. High and then at John Tyler High School. Her favorite things, one of which was cooking, revolved around her family and her church. She possessed exceptional energy and strength; and her kindness, thoughtfulness, and willingness will be missed always.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Brownie Hooker; parents, Lon and Bess Arnold; brother, Raymond Arnold and wife, Viola; brother, J.C. Arnold and wife, Louise; and brother-in-law, John T. McElvany, Jr.

She is survived by her loving family including her daughter, Carolyn Laird and husband, Jack; brother, Harold Arnold and wife, Betty; sister, Dorothy McElvany; and numerous nieces, nephews, and friends.

Private graveside service will be at Tyler Memorial Park Cemetery with Rev. Roy Thoene officiating under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home. The family graciously thanks the staff at Briarcliff Health Center and Hospice of East Texas for their professional services and for their support and kindness shown. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to The Hospice of East Texas Foundation, 4111 University Boulevard, Tyler, TX 75701.
