

Mildred "Mit" Williams

February 26, 1937 - December 1, 2025

Services for Mildred "Mit" Williams, 88, will be held on Saturday, December 6, 2025 at South Spring Baptist Church, 17002 Hwy 69 South. Her son, Michael Williams will serve as officiant.

"Mit" was born on February 26, 1937 in Atlanta, Texas to parents Thomas and Loraine, her 4 brothers and 1 sister. She obtained her nickname "Mit" early in life. Her family knew that "Mildred" was a name entirely too long for such an adventurous tyke. Thus, "Mit" was born!

Mit is survived by her children and grandchildren: daughter, Debbie Matteucci, her husband Thomas and children Tommie and Danny; daughter, Sharon Hunter and her husband Reagan; daughter, Amy Swartz; son, Michael and his wife Esmeralda and children Rachel, Bryce and his wife Kim. She was the proud and loving aunt to numerous nieces and nephews.

Mit was married to her one true love, Dewey, for 54 years. He preceded her in death in 2012.

Mit was fortunate enough to pursue her three great passions - being a parent, an educator and, perhaps most importantly, a Christian. She came to know the Lord as an adult and her faith was obvious in all of her endeavors.

Mit and Dewey ministered to the “College and Career Class” for many years. They saw each person they worked with as a unique individual, holding potential for boundless faith. These young people were not merely students in a class, but an extension of Mit’s family who she dearly loved.

And, of course, there was her signature telephone greeting “Praise the Lord!”

Visitation is scheduled from 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm on Friday evening December 5 at Stewart Family Funeral Home, 7525 Old Jacksonville Hwy, Tyler Texas.

A private, family burial will take place on the morning of December 6, 2025.

“ MIT and Dewy were two of the most wonderful people I ever met. They cared for my Mom, Mary, and loved her. I'm so sorry to hear of her passing. They will both be in my heart forever.

“ I just now saw that Mit had passed away. My condolences to her family. When we were all so much younger I babysat the Williams children. I will always remember how their home was filled with joy (and presents) Christmas. I still have my Raggedy Ann doll she made for me. I know she will be missed by so many.

“ Mrs. Williams was an angel on earth. I met her when she moved to Knollwood subdivision. I had known her wonderful husband and sweet daughter from TISD. Mit always had the words I needed to hear during our many visits. She will be truly missed. But, thank God we will see each other again.
