“ I moved to East Texas in 2007 and within a day or so was greeted by my next door neighbors....turns out it was Monte and Jo Humphrey. They brought a cake (Jo is a great cook!) and invited me to church. The Lord truly blessed me with folks who quickly became a big part of my life. We were always helping each other and I will never forget the laughs and good times we all had. Could not have asked for more genuine neighbors. I know Monte will be dearly missed, but his faith was strong and he knew his Savior! See you again, my friend. Rod
