“ We will remember Merle as a loving , caring family man who was always willing to give to others and share with those he cared about. We'll miss his smile and good nature. He showed many how to live a good life by sharing what he had with others and was an excellant role model for all of us. We'll miss you , Marle

“ Grandpa was a man of many smiles. There never was a time that I saw him when he didn't have a smile on his face. From the time we walked into his home to the time we left he always was smiling. He smiled when he talked about how he and Grandma met, about his children, about his grandchildren and about his family. He smiled when he told stories about his time in the service to the many times he went hunting....Always Smiles... That is what I will miss the most is his infectious smiles. Grandpa I love you and will miss you. Thank you for giving me my many memories of your smiles....

“ Misty and Family,

Sometimes there are no perfect words, only thoughtful silences that whisper softly of caring. Gentle and kind is how I will remember the man whose garden and animals I cared for.

Mr. Goines you will be remembered fondly by me and the whole Rhein Family.

“ I'm so very sorry! I know Misty was as close to her Dad as I was to mine. It's not ever easy to let them go, but remember that now he is not suffering at all, and has finally reached the choice destination.

Love and prayers!

“ Dear Mom, Terry-Lynn, Barry, Sandra, Misty and Family,
I know mere words cannot lessen the pain or loss that Dad's passing has left in our hearts, only time and Love can accomplish that. Still, I offer my deepest sympathies for your/our loss.
Dad was a loving and loyal Husband, Father, Patriot, and a true Texan. He will be greatly missed.
Certainly, he has "slipped the surly bonds of earth and soared on flashing wings to touch the face of God".
Much Love, Waymon

“ God looked around his garden,
And He found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this Earth,
And saw his tired face.

He put his arms around him,
And lifted him to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew he was suffering.
He knew he was in pain.
He knew that he would never,
Get well on Earth again.

He saw that the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed his weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace by Thine."

It broke our hearts to lose him,
But he didn't go alone.
For part of us went with him,
The day God called him home.

I will think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost-- and he was loved so much.

“ Barry: I am so very sorry for the loss of your father. I understand so very much your grief and heartache at this particular time in your life. I recently lost my mother in November in a house fire. Please accept my heartfelt sorrow for you and your family at this time. I am very saddened by your loss.

Your friend always - Liz
