

Myrtle Florene Norman

December 3, 1926 - July 18, 2016

Services for "Florene Norman, 89, of Alpine, formally of Gresham, will be held on Monday, July 25, 2016 at 10:00 AM at Stewart Family Funeral Home with Rev. Roy Thoene officiating.

Private burial will be at Cathedral in the Pines Cemetery in Tyler under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Mrs. Norman went to be with her Lord and Savior on Monday, July 18, 2016 following injuries from an automobile accident in Pecos County.

She was born December 3, 1926 and grew up in the Henry Chapel Community, east of Troup.

She worked for one of the food chains in Tyler for years and retired from one of their outlet Bakeries. She met her husband, Roy D. Norman during World War II and they married in 1944 and remained married for 62 years. They had one daughter, Teresa Cardwell. Florene and Roy lived in Galveston before moving back to East Texas.

Florene was preceded in death by her husband, Roy D. Norman; daughter, Teresa Cardwell and sister-in-law, Allean Hanks.

She is survived by her loving family including son-in-law, Ken Cardwell; sister, Judy Hale of Troup; brother, Shirley Clem of Bullard and a host of nieces and nephews.

Florene was a devoted wife and mother and had a strong Christian faith. She loved her church and was a faithful member of Gresham First Baptist Church for over 45 years. Most of all, Florene enjoyed baking for her Pastor, family and friends.

If desired, memorials may be made to the First Baptist Church in Gresham, 16844 CR 165, Tyler, Texas 75703.

“ Growing up and attending school with Teresa, I remember Florene always welcomed me into her home and was a great host. Her home was always immaculate. She was always sweet and kind to me. A truly beautiful soul. I will miss her and my dear longtime friend, Teresa, very much. This loss is very difficult to accept, but I know I will see them again soon. Sleep in peace my dear friends. I love you-
