She was one of the sweetest people I have ever met. Nancy and I shared the same surgery in the same Hospital on 9-11-2001, I will never forget that day. We also shared our faith in God, thanks for the memories.

She and Chuck are singing in that heavenly choir together like we did at church. "God bless"

“ In the infamous words of Nancy, "well bless!" She blessed us all with her zeal, wit and set an example of devoted love to her husband and family. She will be greatly missed, but I'm assured we will see her again.

“ I always loved Nancy, she was a beautiful person. David was choir instructor at Lakeside Baptist church back 20 years ago when I joined the choir and I always remember Nancy and her favorite saying "WELL BLESS" she lifted everyone's hearts with those two words. She never tried to make people think she was better than you, she was a down to earth, loving, honest person and I believe everyone loved her. I cherish the years they both were here with Lakeside Baptist Church they both made choir a little bit more special just having them with us. Nancy will surely be missed deeply by all who knew her. I know she is with the Lord our God and he will be hearing Nancy's famous two words, "WELL BLESS" many times and he will smile when he hears them. May her heart and soul rest in peace. I know poor David will be lost without her and pray that he has the strength to carry on as I am sure Nancy wants him too. My love goes out to them both.

“ I'm thinking about the fun times we had at First Dallas, the 1984 Great Masters Tour, the fun times at The Promise and the personally escorted tour behind the scenes for my Louisiana friends led by none other than your sweet Nancy. Blessings on you and your family, David. I've loved you two for many years!

“ Nancy was our First Lady of Music at First Baptist Church of Dallas, back in the 1980's. She was married to our minister of music, David Humphrey. Nancy was known for her beauty and elegance, her pretty bun, and her favorite saying "oh bless". She was a devoted wife and good mother to her three kids--Dean, Jennifer, and Jonathan.
