I wish I had never saw this online. I'm 50 now. But I was just a young girl who lived across the street from Herschel and Nancy in The Colony, Texas in the early 80's. I would spend the night and we would go roller skating yes they coupled skated together and such a loving couple. They took me to church with them and vacation bin school, they were like my extra set of parents and then they moved away. I missed them and never knew how to find them. Tears fill my eyes as I see this obituary. I wish I could find Herschel. It would be so nice to hug him amd talk. Hugs And sympathy to the family. Until we see each other again when Jesus comes to get us all! Love Ramona Barlow Partridge rjpartridge92@gmail.com
