“ I have known Nancy for 17 years. She was always full of laughter and loved life to the fullest.
What a fabulous personality and always humble to others. She treated me like family and I her. One of my best friends forever.

Nancy was like a second mother to me. We could talk about anything and everything. She loved traveling and her children dearly. Her favourite cruise was the Canadian Alaskan cruise with her family.

I will miss her laughter, jokes, hugs and our chats we had together. Loved her very much.
She will be in my thoughts forever.

Deepest sympathy to her family. May the Lord lift them up and give them peace in all the great memories she has left them with.

God Bless
