“ My memory of Nancy come through her lovely daughter Laila. Laila was on her high school's newspaper staff where we spent many hours together. I am so sorry that she has had to say goodbye to her mother so early. I pray she can cherish the memories they shared. Love always, Cindy Allen

“ Nancy and I became friends in elementary school and went thru middle school and high school together. We would spend the night at each other houses and hang out together. Nancy liked to have fun and laugh. Its hard to believe her time is up on earth but I know she is rejoicing in heaven with family and friends.

“ I'm in complete disbelief that Nancy has crossed over into Heaven at this young age. With her so active on Facebook and sharing such wonderful posts of her daughter, grandbaby and the love of her garden and home, it seems unbelievable to think she will not be sharing any more news about the things she loved most in this world.

From kindergarten through high school, Nancy was beside me in classes and in activities. She was the first friend to encourage me to try using those pretty, pastel Schick razors when they first came out.

😊 I had many sleepovers with Nancy in Jr. High and I loved her mother dearly. Her daddy would come in from the tennis court in the summer and would sit in his chair and read the paper while Nancy and I would try to be quiet while he cooled off from his tennis game. Nancy and I were loud and we loved to be silly and laugh, and sometimes that got us in trouble!

I remember watching scary movies with Nancy and she would laugh at me because I was so scared! She would jump out and scare me and make me so mad! 😞

In recent days, Nancy was such a wonderful help to my elderly mother when she needed help gathering medical records from Trinity Mother Francis after Daddy passed away. Nancy recently told me that she saw my mom while she was on an errand and that it was wonderful to see her. Nancy loved flowers and she loved the orchids that my mom grows. She enjoyed the pictures of my mom's flowers as much as I loved the posts of Nancy's beautiful yard. Nancy had just posted pictures of the Trees in Caddo Lake and how she thought they were so beautiful.

I will miss Nancy and fondly remember our past. I am praying for her sweet daughter and her grandbaby that she loved so much. Rest in peace, Nancy, and forever enjoy the Heavenly reunion you are sharing with your family and friends who went on before.

“ Nancy will surely be missed. I enjoyed working with her over the past few years. I loved to hear her talk about her daughter Laila and Chubby chubs. Still just unbelievable. I pray you find comfort knowing she is walking with God now.
