“ I first met Nan in a Bible study group that I hosted in my home. She faithfully attended each week and we developed a friendship during that time. She served in preschool ministry and I was able to serve alongside her in preparation of materials and lovely times of chatting together. When she became ill, I was privileged to walk alongside her for many months and when my life became difficult, she in turn kept in touch with me through phone calls and text messages. She will be greatly missed and was dearly loved!!
