

Neldara Rose Loudamy

June 6, 1935 - August 14, 2016

Services for Neldara Rose Loudamy, 81, of Tyler, are scheduled for 10:00 AM on Wednesday, August 17, 2016 at Stewart Family Funeral Home chapel with Glenn Jones officiating. Visitation is set for 6:00 to 8:00 PM on Tuesday, August 16, 2016.

A graveside service will be held at noon on Thursday, August 18, 2016 at the New Spanish Fort Cemetery in Nocona.

Nelda passed away August 14, 2016 in Tyler.

She was born June 6, 1935 in Montague County to Zella Lois Rose.

She graduated from Prairie Valley School in Nocona and attended Draughons Business School in Wichita Falls, after which she was a secretary and bookkeeper for American Trust Life Insurance.

Nelda married Clyde Loudamy on April 1, 1956 and the couple had three boys. The family moved to Tyler in 1970. She worked as a cake decorator for several stores over 16 years until the couple opened their own meat market business, Clyde's West Erwin Market.

Nelda was a long-time member of Green Acres Baptist Church and was a member of the Betty Reedy Sunday school class.

Her life was filled with love, laughter and family.

Nelda was preceded in death by her husband, Clyde; and her mother, Zella Rose.

She is survived by sons Wayne Loudamy and wife Suzanne of Whitehouse, Tony Loudamy and wife Shelba of Tyler and Kevin Loudamy of Brownsboro.

She is also survived by granddaughters Bethany DeLay and husband Jeremy of Waxahachie and Sarah Mullins and husband Jeffrey of Edom; and great-grandson JD DeLay of Waxahachie.

If desired, memorials may be made to the Forerunners, Green Acres Baptist Church, 1607 Troup Hwy, Tyler, TX 75701, or a charity of your choice.
