

Noel Robert

January 13, 1929 - September 14, 2007

G. Noël Robert, 78, of Tyler, passed away on Friday, September 14, 2007 after a brief illness. Noël was born in Chicago, Illinois on January 13, 1929. He attended the New Mexico Military Institute and the University of Illinois. Noël served in the United States Army during the time of the Korean conflict. At the University of Illinois Noël met Sue Jane Hays, and they were married in 1954. Sue passed away in 1975. In 1977, Noël married Hannah Austin, after which they moved to Tyler, where they resided until Noël's death. Noël is survived by his wife, Hannah Robert, of Tyler; his brother, Daniel Robert, of Muncie, Indiana; his son, Marc Robert, of Las Cruces, New Mexico, and grandchildren Danielle and Michel Robert; his daughter, Julie Taylor, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and grandchildren Ben Weston and Tyler Weston; his daughter, Suzanne Beverly, of Austin, Texas and grandchildren Erin Beverly and Clay Beverly; and his daughter, Annette Thomas, of Georgetown, Texas, and grandchildren Weston Thomas, Abbi Thomas and Colin Thomas. Noël worked in the oil business for many years and found Tyler a perfect fit when he and Hannah came to town in 1977. Noël was a long-time member of the Willowbrook Country Club, and was an avid golfer all his life. He was a beloved father and husband. He was a fly fisherman and expert tier. He was a hunter, an archer, a pilot. Noël was the oldest son of immigrants from Belgium and Switzerland and spoke fluent French. He cherished his opportunities to visit Europe and meet members of his extended family. Noël was a member of the Christ Episcopal Church in Tyler. Local arrangements are with Stewart Family

“ Susie and Family,
So sorry to hear of the loss of your father. I often wondered where your family ended up after leaving Mattoon! Your family was always very fondly thought of in Mattoon.
My sympathies,
Liz Hoover
