

Noreen Jones

January 12, 1931 - August 6, 2012

Noreen Jones went to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, August 6, 2012. Services will be held on Thursday, August 9, 2012 at 11:00 AM at Stewart Family Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Roger Dawson officiating. A private burial will be held under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home. Mrs. Jones was born January 12, 1931 in Ft. Worth to Frank Edward and Ila Voss White Dulaney. Noreen was a member of Uvalde Baptist Church in Houston. Although she never learned to read music, she loved to play the piano and organ. She also taught Sunday school and enjoyed gathering with her friends to play bridge and drink coffee. Noreen enjoyed reading and eating Bluebell orange sherbet ice cream and cooking. Noreen had a gentle soul, who was very giving and never complained. She loved spending time with her family. Noreen was preceded in death by her parents; husband John Earl Jones, Jr; and son-in-law, Stan Marlow. She is survived by her loving family including daughters, Teresa Marlow of Tyler and Cynthia Dyson and husband Ken of League City; sisters, Thelma Goin of Wolfe City and Ruth McGee and husband H.L. of Suwanee, GA; brother Bud Dulaney and wife Shirley of Malakoff; grandchildren, Jason Taylor of Tyler, Jaclyn Dawson and husband Roger of Greenville; great-grandchildren, Reah Dawson and Reagan Dawson. She is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews. Memorials may be made to American Heart Association, 3800 Paluxy Dr, Tyler, 75703.

“ Because of my friendship with Teresa, Noreen's daughter, I was able to build a friendship with Noreen. I learned that she was a caring, loving, spunky, independent woman. She became my second "Mom". She was always so kind to me and eventually my grandchildren. I will miss her smile and love so much. My thoughts and prayers are with all of her family during this difficult time.
