“ I'm so sorry to learn about Norma's passing. I would've liked to have been at her memorial service (as I was at Jesse's), but I didn't find out about her passing until yesterday. Norma was a ray of sunshine at our annual Barber family reunions, always a delight to be around. Our reunions won't be the same without her. I'll miss cousin Norma, but will see her again on the other side, thanks to our Lord Jesus. I pray God's comfort on all of Norma's family during this time.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of your loss and also blessed that she is reunited with Bro. Jesse. What wonderful people who lead music at the First Baptist Church of Delhi (and also lived in my neighborhood). I spoke with Mrs. Sutton often and she helped lead me in my decision to give my heart to Christ. She was such a beautiful example of a Christian.

*My prayers are with you !

“ Mrs. Sutton was a very special lady that touched a lot of hearts. I have thought of her often over the years. Her piano talents were truly a God send. Rest in the fact knowing she is playing on a grand piano on the gates of Heaven with Bro. Jessie singing by her side.
