

Norman E. Wells

September 27, 1932 - September 17, 2013

A private family graveside service for Norman E. Wells, 80, of Tyler will be held Friday, September 20, 2013 with Rev. Frank Battles officiating.

Arrangements are under direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Mr. Wells passed away September 17, 2013 under the care of Heart To Heart Hospice. He was born September 27, 1932 in Smith County to Jim and Rosie Glasscock Wells.

Norman attended school in Lindale and TJC in Tyler. He owned Wells Realty and was a real estate broker as well along with his wife in Tyler. He was also a home builder in the Tyler area for many years. In 1984, Norman and his son Mike co-founded Wells Marble Company. Norman then retired in 1995 and he liked spending time at the lake and fishing. He enjoyed singing and writing worship songs and he also enjoyed driving the church bus on Sunday mornings as well as teaching Sunday school at Central Baptist Church. He was a present member of Heritage Baptist Church.

Norman was preceded in death by his parents and his wife Margie Vickery Wells. He is survived by a loving family including his sons, Mike Wells and wife Debbie of Tyler, and Alan Wells of Dallas; daughter, Kristie Kneberg and husband Jim of Emory; and by his sister Leola Snyder of Chandler. He is also survived by 9 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

The family would like to give a special thank you to Ashley Bulman and the staff at the Hamptons at Pineforest and to Heart to Heart Hospice for their loving care given to Norman.

“ It was a privilege to know Bro. Norman and Mrs. Margie as a young couple when we all attended Central Baptist Church years ago. Bro. Bennett and I were there the day they walked the aisle and gave their life to Christ. In later years we have not been in touch so much, but they will always be remembered with love and respect. I am praying for the family. Sincerely in Christ, Carmen Bennett (Dr. Wiley Bennett)
