“ The first thing I learned about Pat was that he had a wonderfully "odd" sense of humor that he lovingly passed on to his children and which I share and treasure "sharing" that same sense of humor with Laura. He always made me smile, every time I saw him. Usually within the first statement he made. He was so loving and fatherly towards Tomme that one couldn't help but take notice and respect him for it. I didn't know him long, but his quiet strength made a lasting impression.

*Much Love to the family, especially Karen
