

Patsy "Pat" Sager

June 21, 1945 - June 10, 2015

Services for Patsy Jo Sager, 69, of Tyler, will be on Sunday, June 14, 2015, at 2:30 p.m. at Stewart Family Funeral Home Chapel, Tyler, with the Rev. Pike Wisner officiating. Burial will follow at Cathedral in the Pines in Tyler under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Pat went home to be with the Lord on June 10, 2015. She was born June 21, 1945, in Henderson, Texas, and is preceded in death by her parents, Ernest and Merline Daw Osburn, her brother, Thomas D. Osburn and her husband of 20 years, Tom D. Sager.

Graduating from New London High School in 1963, Pat attended cosmetology school and worked as a beautician for several years. After the family moved to Tyler, she spent her time lovingly raising her two sons and being the best mother they could have ever asked for. The next phase of her life included working for many years at the Better Business Bureau of East Texas where she enjoyed building many friendships with her clients and fellow co-workers. In 1996, together with her late husband and the love of her life, Pat purchased Homes and Land Magazine of East Texas where they spent countless hours working side by side and enjoying every minute of it.

Pat was a member of First Baptist Church of Tyler and leaves behind many dear friends and family members including her children, Phil and Jennifer Bane of Tyler, and Scott and Tracee Bane of Carrollton; grandchildren, Courtney and Whitney Bane of Tyler, and Brandon and Trevor Bane of Carrollton who loved and adored their "Mimi". Also left behind is her faithful four-legged friend, Lizzie.

The family wishes to express their heartfelt thanks to the staff and employees of the Olive Garden of Tyler as this was "Mimi & Bamps' second home" and where many hours were spent by Mimi and the whole family. Pat was also blessed with a fantastic group of women that she looked forward to meeting with on Wednesday nights to play bridge.

The family would also like to express its deepest thanks to Carolyn Moss for her many years of friendship and devotion as she has worked countless hours at Homes and Land Magazine even through her own recent hardships and losses of family members.

Visitation is scheduled from 5:00 to 7:00 pm on Saturday, June 13, 2015, at Stewart Family Funeral Home, 7525 Old Jacksonville Highway, in Tyler. If desired, memorials in honor of Pat Sager may be made to First Baptist Church / Royal Family Kids Camp, 301 West Ferguson, Tyler, TX. 75702.

“ *I was 5 yrs old when I moved to Phillips St in New London. Patsy was my first friend and playmate! We spent everyday together playing in the woods, riding bikes or playing house in her playhouse in the backyard (it was actually part of a storage building that we confiscated). She was already 6 yrs old and would often let me know that age meant being "in charge." LOL We both went on to graduate from London HS and remained friends all of our lives. Patsy was one of a kind and dearly loved. She will be missed by so many friends. My prayers go out to her family and friends. RIP
Patsy*

“ My little "neighbor girl" and life-long friend has left us for a Better Land. Cannot remember NOT knowing Pat. We grew up side by side in Phillips Camp, New London. Oh, those wonderful memories! Then, I'd visit her from Colo, when I'd visit my parents back here, in the 70s and 80s, when our children were small. And now we had lived across from each other again, on Copeland. My heartfelt condolences to her boys and to their families.

“ I grew up with Patsy Jo in New London, TX. We started Kindergarten together. In Elementary school someone came up with the idea of setting up a Boxing Ring and putting gloves on anyone who had the guts to do so. Patsy Jo kicked my tush. I remember just standing there stunned, and looked her in the face and said "You really hit me!" Then I burst into tears. Patsy Jo laughed so hard that tears rolled down her face. Later when we were by ourselves she gave me a big hug and told me she was sorry that she made me cry, then she burst out laughing again. We have laughed about that all these years.

Patsy Jo and I also when to Beauty School together one summer. We used to go to a fast food restaurant at lunch, can't remember the name, we always had a Pizza Burger. We always wondered what was in that burger that made us want it, it was terrible.

Patsy Jo, Rita and I used to sit around her kitchen table talking over old times and drinking, one weekend I left Tyler without any make up, did not do my hair. I stopped at any McDonald, Sonic etc that had malts. That is the only thing that got me home that Sunday. My husband took one look at me when I got out of the car and asked if I had a good time.

I never went to Patsy's that I didn't have a good time. I will miss her so much, she was my very best friend.

Love you Patsy Jo,

Polly Munn
