“ Dear Caden and Nickolas,
Nickolas you and I have neve met, but my family and I have know Caden, and Patti for years. Caden and my son, Southern were very good friends. Tell Caden that April, and Nana love him. If ya'll need anything please let us know. My son, and dad passed away last year and Caden had a really hard time understanding it. Please tell him that Southern and Papa are going to take really, really good care of his mama in Heaven.

“ Why would anybody want to hurt that sweet girl. Here's a poem I found:

It must be borne in mind that the tragedy of life doesn't lie in not reaching your goal.

The tragedy lies in having no goal to reach.

It is not a calamity to die with dreams unfulfilled.

But it is a calamity not to dream.

It is not a disaster to be unable to capture your ideal,

But it is a disaster to no ideal to capture.

It is not a disgrace not to reach the stars.

But it is a disgrace not to have stars to reach for.

Not failure, but low aim is a sin.

Dr Benjamin Elijah Mays

I remember Patti as the smallest McHugh who always had a smile on her face and never too busy to say hello to you.

“ Dear Nicholas, Caden and Family,

We send our prayers and sympathies to you and our heart is broken over the loss of your Mother, Daughter, and Sister.

I will always remember her when she was a young little girl and always smiling. The fun times in New Jersey when we would come to visit with Grandma and Grandpa.

Happy memories are what helps get you through such sadness.

*Love to all,

“ Patti,

The world is no longer the same without you. I remember all the "coffee talks." You were truly the best friend I have ever had. Thank you for always being a wise but relatable role model.

Nick, I am so proud of you for how hard you have worked. I remember when I used to babysit you and we would play rummy-call me sometime if you ever want to talk.

I will see you tomorrow.
